

FIGHT OF FOUR FARMERS

SERIOUS RESULTS FOLLOW THE STRAYING OF A FAMILY DOG.

Arday Near Bloomington—Suit on a Note Given in 1929—Man Beaten in Anderson Jail—Other State News.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., June 12.—Early this morning a free fight occurred among four farmers over a dog, and the result is a serious condition. James P. Brummett is without a nose, and John, George and Jacob Richardson are defendants in damage suits of $5,000 each.

Brummett claimed a family dog had strayed and got in the Richardson home, and the father and two sons would not release it. Brummett went to Richardson's after the canine and a fight ensued. Brummett had his nose bitten off by John Richardson, but not until he had almost killed Jacob Richardson. All came to town at once. Brummett filed suit against John Richardson for mayhem. Brummett was placed under bond for attempting to kill, and then filed suit for $5,000 each. Both are leading families near Unionville.

Beaten by the Other Prisoners.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., June 12.—George Muenich, who was placed in the Anderson jail last night, was assaulted and terribly beaten by the other prisoners before the intervention of the jailer. The jail was in a crowded condition, and the prisoners could not be separated. There are a number of very tough characters incarcerated and it has been their practice to "initiate" newcomers. Muenich is a cripple and wears a wooden leg which he unlaced and beat himself with. While in this helpless condition he was attacked by the other prisoners caught up the leg and dealt him a fearful blow over the head. He was very seriously beaten.

NOTE GIVEN IN 1929.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

It is the basis of a suit filed in the Wayne Circuit Court.

RICHMOND, Ind., June 12.—The filing of the suit of John N. Conklin, of Cambridge City, against James M. Conwell, to recover money, brings out one of the most remarkable stories that has come to light in Richmond in a long time. James M. Conwell was a member of the firm of Holmes & Conwell, Cincinnati, who were in business in the city in 1929. The firm failed and Conwell, it is alleged, absconded, leaving a large number of creditors unpaid.

Previous to his departure he drove from Cincinnati to Liberty, Ind., which was then the home of Felix Conklin, father of the plaintiff in the present suit, and wanted to borrow $2,000. Mr. Conklin let him have the money and the next thing he knew Conwell and the money were gone and since that time neither has been heard from. The loss of the money was a serious blow.

DELPHI TELEPHONE WAR

MUTUAL COMPANIES TRY TO FORCE ENTRANCE TO THE CITY.

Important Industrial Kerker at Fort Wayne—Machine Blowers a Success in the Jonesboro Plant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DELPHI, Ind., June 12.—A telephone war is on in this county. A number of small towns, including Yeoman, Camden, Rockfield, Burlington and Ellettsburg, have organized co-operative telephone companies and ask to be admitted to Delphi and given service of the company free of charge. The Delphi company claims that its toll lines, which are already erected, would be useless if the demand of the co-operative companies was accepted.

A proposition was made the co-operative companies to pay the toll lines ten cents toll at each end, the collections to be divided evenly. The co-operative company refused this proposition and the farmers, who have been working hard to get their telephones connected with the Delphi system, have some very indignant. The co-operative companies have about 400 telephones and the Delphi system about 350.

Nearly all the farmers belonging to the co-operative companies hold their telephones in Delphi, and the business men have called meeting for to-morrow night to see if some arrangement cannot be reached.

Fort Wayne Light Company Takes Over the Franchise.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 12.—The Fort Wayne Electric Light and Power Company has purchased the franchise of the General Heating Company, which obtained a franchise to heat the city of Fort Wayne.

The company's original purpose was to make double use of its steam. The franchise was obtained by G. W. Beers, S. M. Foster, W. J. Vesey, Charles McCulloch, S. S. Fisher, and others. The company is now in the process of building the heating plant itself, but owing to the difficulty of obtaining the necessary capital, the company has decided to sell the franchise to the General Heating Company.

THIRD STROKE—BRILLIANT CAREER OF HIS DEAD SOLDIER—OTHER OBITUARY.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DAYTON, O., June 12.—General Alexander McDowell McCook, U. S. A., retired, suffered a third stroke of paralysis at 6 o'clock this morning and died half an hour later at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Craighead, on West Monument avenue. General McCook was born at Washington a few weeks ago and shortly afterward suffered a mild stroke of paralysis. This was followed a few days later with a second stroke more serious than the first, but despite this fact it was believed that the general would recover. He appeared to be steadily improving until this morning, when the third stroke came. Mrs. McCook, the widow, Mrs. Chauncey Baker, of Washington, a daughter, and Mrs. Craighead were at the bedside at the hour of passing.

Details for the funeral of General McCook have not been perfected, but it is probable that the services will be held here on Monday. The burial will take place at Spring Grove cemetery at Dayton, where he is buried. General McCook was a member of the United States Army and served in the Mexican and Philippine wars.
